

Customs allowances

Trips from France, Jersey and Alderney

There are restrictions on the amount of duty free goods that can be brought into Guernsey. Your maximum personal allowances are as follows –

Tobacco products (over 17s only)

200 cigarettes

OR 100 cigarillos

OR 50 cigars

OR 250g of tobacco

Alcoholic drinks (over 17s only)

Still table wine 2 litres

AND

Either –spirits or strong liqueurs over 22% alcohol by volume

1 litre

Or fortified or sparkling wine or other liqueurs

2 litres

Or an additional still table wine allowance of

4 litres

Other goods

- (a) If brought in from a country of the EC, goods to an unlimited value, with the exception of beer and cider to a maximum of 50 litres per person (or a combination of beer and cider).
- (b) If brought in from a country outside the EC, goods to the value of £145.

If you bring in something worth more than the limit of £145, you will have to pay duty on the full value above £145.

If you are travelling as a family or group, you cannot pool your individual allowances towards an item worth more than the limit. You will have to pay duty on the full value of the item.

Prohibited or restricted goods

Certain goods such as controlled drugs, firearms, birds and endangered species are also prohibited or restricted. See the Border Agency website at www.gov.gg/prohibitedandrestrictedgoods for details